

Bringing together celebrated architects and designers, The Spencer forms part of a larger mixed-use development known commonly as West End, and includes a mix of food and retail outlets, supermarket and medical centre.

You will be spoilt for choice with public transport having the train, tram and bus network on your doorstep.

This is city edge living at its best in one of the world's most liveable cities. You'll be a stone's throw away from Flagstaff Gardens and the largest open air market in the southern hemisphere, the Queen Victoria Markets.

Residents will have access to the Contemplation and Meditation Gardens on level 3, as well as the rooftop garden and swimming pool to relax and unwind, alongside a fully equipped gymnasium.
